

Bain Capital, 11North Partners Pay $300M for Five Open-Air Malls

$300 m

Debt / financing

On Wednesday, Bain Capital and 11North Partners closed a $300 million acquisition of five open-air malls across four states. The portfolio spans 757,000 square feet. Properties...

The clean read

- On Wednesday, Bain Capital and 11North Partners closed a $300 million acquisition of five...
- The statement did not disclose the basis per square foot, but $300 million divided by...
- Bain Capital and 11North Partners did not disclose leverage levels, debt sources, or cap...

The numbers tell the story

$300 m

Debt / financing

$185 b

Debt / financing

$396

Debt / financing

This is a capital stack story

Retail has surged over the last year as demand rises and capital markets stabilize, according to Cushman & Wakefield research.

- He said the firm is acquiring high-quality, irreplaceable assets in undersupplied markets at a...
- Its proprietary data-driven underwriting framework evaluates markets, submarkets, and individual...

Who is moving the market

- Bain Capital: central to the transaction.
- Barcroft Plaza: central to the transaction.
- West Town Corners: central to the transaction.

Where the deal can break

- University Commons was sold by Vista Private Equity Group.
- Martha Kelley, a managing director for real estate at Bain Capital, said the assets align with...
- Retail has surged over the last year as demand rises and capital markets stabilize, according...

What lenders and investors notice

$185 b

Debt / financing

$396

Debt / financing

$19.5 m

Debt / financing

The broader implication

He said the firm is acquiring high-quality, irreplaceable assets in undersupplied markets at a basis structurally difficult to replicate.

- Its proprietary data-driven underwriting framework evaluates markets, submarkets, and individual...
- The statement suggests Bain is not chasing yield but deploying capital into a thesis...

If foot traffic continues to rise, more capital will follow.

The headline is the transaction. The story is the structure.

If the capital stack works, the deal becomes a signal. If it does not, it becomes a warning.

LIGHT TOWER GROUP

Debt & Equity Placement